Mr. Maxwell Richmond

Boston, Mass.,

Dear Max,

In recent years my travelling time has been my thinking time. On the way home I thought of your suggestions. You are right and I appreciate the advice. I'll have to try and be less long-hair.

It was an interesting experience.

And what a commentary on modern society was my trip home!

It took me 20 minutes more to get out of the airport parking lot than the 500-600 mile flight required! I had the flat est tire I have ever seen, the gift of a vandal. The garage was but a fifth of a mile away. To get the service truck that short distance after I phoned actually took more time than the flight!

My additional expenses are as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Mileage, 98 / .08 | $7.84 |
| Parking; | 3.00 |
| cabs, Boston | 6.30 |
| food | 5.45 |
| Tips | .75 |
| | 23.34 |

Sincerely,

Harold Holzberg
